

Virtual Young Forwarder Network

If you're new to the industry and keen to develop your knowledge and professional skills, BIFA's virtual Young Forwarder Network could provide the perfect opportunity.

BIFA's virtual Young Forwarder Network will:

-  Boost your industry knowledge
-  Share skills and experiences from industry professionals
-  Inspire you and your company to promote the logistics and forwarding sector to the next generation
-  Support your personal network development
-  Provide online events including virtual port tours and social opportunities
